

11th stage of the UET Elite Circuit 2025
Prix René Ballière
Hippodrome de Paris-Vincennes, France - June 22

Although beaten, French GO ON BOY regains its distance

A surprise at the finish of the 11th stage of the UET Elite Circuit on Sunday at the Paris-Vincennes racetrack in the Prix René Ballière. GO ON BOY appeared to be on course for another victory, but was unable to hold off the final rush from outsider JABALPUR. Gabriele GELORMINI's partner put in a fine final effort to dominate the favorite and break the Paris track record by trotting the 2,100-meter course with a kilometer reduction of 1'08"7. IGUSKI SAUTONNE was next in line ahead of KEEP GOING.

Romain DERIEUX's champion may have failed to win, but he nonetheless did an excellent job in the UET Elite Circuit rankings. With none of his "Top ten" rivals present, he escaped with a lead of 23 and 28 points respectively over runners-up ALWAYS EK and BORUPS VICTORY. JABALPUR, who won the Paris leg on his first appearance at this level, was credited with 15 points. He finds himself tied with four other horses, just behind the top ten. And according to the rules, this is a provisional 14th place.
