

5th stage of the 2026 UET Elite Circuit
Gran Premio Costa Azzurra
Vinovo Racetrack in Turin, Italy – April 6, 2026

The “GOCCIADORO” team dominates in Turin, and the yellow jersey for INMAROSA

Italian trainer Alessandro GOCCIADORO left his rivals with nothing but crumbs on Easter Monday at the Turin racetrack, winning four of the day’s nine races, including all three Group I events. And to top it off, his horses even took the top three spots in the Gran Premio Costa Azzurra, the 5th stage of the 2026 UET Elite Circuit. As for the French-trained INMAROSA, her position in the second row behind the autostart proved detrimental. But her 7th-place finish allowed her to seize first place in the provisional standings, three points ahead of a trio consisting of his compatriots GO ON BOY, JABALPUR, and IGUSKI SAUTONNE.

Narrowly beaten last year by DANY CAPAR, ALWAYS EK took his revenge in this 2026 edition. Despite a headwind-facing run near the pacesetter, DUBHE PRAV, the partner of Sweden’s Magnus DJUSE proved unbeatable in the home stretch. At the age of 10, he crossed the finish line ahead of his training partners FREE TIME JEPSON and DANY CAPAR, driven by Alessandro GOCCIADORO himself. Making his debut at this level, the French horse IGREC DE CELLAND put in a fine performance, finishing fourth. . Having to start from the second row, the French Trotters JABALPUR and INMAROSA could do nothing but endure the race. Before heading to Northern Europe, the UET Elite Circuit will make one more stop in Italy : in Naples for the Gran Premio della Lotteria on May 3.
