

2026 UET Elite Circuit – Stage 16
Grand Prix de Wallonie
Mons Racetrack, Belgium – September 19, 2026

French Trotter GO ON BOY scores a one-two finish in the final stage

The 16th and final stage of the UET Elite Circuit concluded on Saturday at the Mons Racetrack in Belgium. After a false start, defending champion INEXESS BLEU cleared the way for his compatriot GO ON BOY. And Romain DERIEUX's horse did not hesitate to win this prestigious race for the third time, following his victories in 2023 and 2024. The icing on the cake was that the 16 points he earned allowed him to reclaim first place in the overall standings, dethroning the Swedish horse EPIC KRONOS.

Although beaten in the final sprint by JINGLE DU PONT and KRACK TIME ATOUT, FRANK GIO still managed to score 7 points, bringing his provisional total to 29. Sébastien GUARATO's charge thus entered the "top ten," slipping into 7th place in the final standings. Finishing 5th after a closely contested finish, HARLEY GEMA regained 11th place, a position she had previously held on March 8 after the Cagnes-sur-Mer stage. Now it's time for the grand finale, which will take place on October 11 during a gala event at the Vinovo Racetrack in Turin. According to the rules, the top five in the final overall standings have the opportunity to choose their starting position behind the autostart wings. GO ON BOY's team will therefore be the first to do so. It remains to be seen what the teams behind EPIC KRONOS, DON FANUCCI ZET, and FREE TIME JEPSON will decide next. Although currently ranked 5th, this should not affect the unfortunate FRANCESCO ZET, who was withdrawn from the competition due to injury.
